Chapter 1 by obligator

its not easy realizing people don't care all that much about what I wrote.

I carefully selected each word the way a jeweler selects jem's for a wedding band.

why cant every one else see the vision i have, and the contribution i made to the story.

its not that mine is better than everyone else's, its just that mine is more thought out.

sure... i have voted for other peoples chapters... i just cant remember when...

wait, there was this one time... it went something like this...
